ATTENTION VOTERS

Photo identification will now be required when voting in elections in Texas.

Acceptable forms of photo identification (ID) to present when voting include:

(unexpired or expired less than 60 days)

- Texas Driver License
- Texas Personal Identification Card
- U.S. Passport Book or Card
- Texas Concealed Handgun License
- U.S. Military Identification with Photo
- U.S. Citizenship Certificate or Certificate of Naturalization with photo

Only individuals who do not already have an acceptable form of photo identification (ID) to present when voting are eligible to receive an Election Identification Certificates (EIC) at their local Department of Public Safety (DPS) office.

To qualify for an Election Identification Certificate (EIC), applicants must be:

- A U.S. citizen;
- A Texas resident;
- Eligible to vote in Texas (show a valid voter registration card or submit a voter registration when applying for the EIC); and
- 17 years and 10 months or older

Residents with a documented disability may apply at their county voter registrar for a permanent exemption from the photo ID requirement. If approved, they will not need a photo ID to vote. Also, if individuals are voting by mail, they do not have to submit a photo ID.
